

GARY FARRELL

VINEYARDS & WINERY

2014 CHARDONNAY

RUSSIAN RIVER SELECTION
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

WINE ENTHUSIAST

95
POINTS

“Tangy green apple and a richer, more concentrated element of apple-spice cake, with supportive, balanced acidity. With a bright, lifted finish, this less expensive offering compared with many of the producer’s single vineyard designates never lets up on complexity or deliciousness.

— Virginie Boone, February 2017

CORKSCREWER REPORT

93
POINTS

“There’s no holding back its suave, vibrant and even audacious personality.... concentrated flavors of lemon meringue, stone fruit and green apple along with additional nuances of white and yellow flowers, almond butter, oak and the faintest hint of mint. There is a balance here of a certain level of creaminess in texture that meets a bright, bracing acidity of citrus on the finish. ...A killer wine at a killer price—always has been, always will be.”

— Johannes Marlena, August 2016

TASTING PANEL

91
POINTS

“Lush and ripe with tangy acidity and smooth vanilla new oak; racy, crisp and balanced with lovely elegant style and a long finish.”

— Anthony Dias Blue, October 2016

WINE SPECTATOR

90
POINTS

“Features a tight mix of leesy, pithy citrus, pineapple skin and blood orange rind flavors. Complex, with a long, sustained finish.”

— Jim Laube, September 2016

CALIFORNIA GRAPEVINE

90
POINTS

“Floral, fragrant, green apple and white peach aroma with a hint of honeysuckle... crisp, lemony, green apple flavors with a slight hint of butterscotch; lingering aftertaste. Very highly recommended.”

— Nicholas Ponomareff, August 2016

