2015 PINOT NOIR

HALLBERG VINEYARD
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

WINE ENTHUSIAST

95
POINTS

“...A juicy, expansive and textured wine, incredibly delicious in ripe raspberry and strawberry flavors. It has sanguine undertones, with clove, cardamom and black tea that stand out against polished tannins.”

— Virginie Boone, July 2018

JAMES SUCKLING

93
POINTS

“A fragrant and very elegant pinot noir that’s got so much life and wonderful mineral freshness, alongside the complex aromas of red fruit and flowers. Already very enjoyable, but it has so much life ahead of it.”

— James Suckling, May 2019

JEB DUNNUCK

93
POINTS

“Deep ruby-colored and offering a beautiful nose of mulberries, blackberries, wood smoke, spice and underbrush, it’s medium-bodied, seamless, and silky on the palate. It’s a classic, Cote de Nuits look-alike that will drink nicely for a decade.”

— Jeb Dunnuck, June 5, 2018

ROBERT PARKER’S WINE ADVOCATE

92
POINTS

“Redolent of warm red plums, chocolate-covered cherries and black raspberries with touches of dried lavender, Ceylon tea, tobacco leaf and black pepper. Medium-bodied and quite peppery in the mouth, it has a firm frame of chewy tannins and a lively lift to the long, savory finish.”

— Lisa Perrotti-Brown, April 2018
