JAMES SUCKLING

92
POINTS

“Plenty of cooked apples, dried daffodils, Chinese plums, cantaloupe melon, vanilla and cloves. Medium-bodied with a round mouthfeel that’s complemented by bright acidity and a tight frame of phenolics. Drink now.”

— James Suckling, May 2019

WINE SPECTATOR

91
POINTS

“Pure and focused, with an engaging minerality to the well-structured McIntosh apple, Asian pear and lemon-lime flavors. Show juicy crispness on the finish, with notes of crushed savory herb. Drink now through 2023.”

— Kim Marcus, June 2019

WINE ADVOCATE

91
POINTS

“Expressive apricot, pink grapefruit and apple pie notes with touches of struck flint, marzipan and beeswax. Medium-bodied with a wicked backbone of racy acid, it features loads of citrus and stone fruit flavors and a long, zesty finish.”

— Lisa Perrotti-Brown, April 2018
