

GARY FARRELL

VINEYARDS & WINERY

2015 PINOT NOIR

RUSSIAN RIVER SELECTION
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

6 | FOOD & WINE

“THE 30 PINOT NOIRS TO DRINK IF YOU WANT TO BE A REAL EXPERT”

“...one unctuous 2015 Pinot with a solid core of ripe cherry, cranberry, and dried strawberry, earth, spice, and toasty oak with fine, youthful tannins, which suggest a long life ahead in the cellar.”

— Jonathan Cristaldi, September 18, 2018

WINE ENTHUSIAST

“BEST OF YEAR 2017”

94
POINTS

“Crisp acidity buoys sharp red fruit in this delectable wine—a blend of multiple sites across the appellation. Medium build, it shows youthful tannins and oak that supports without intrusion, allowing the crunch of cranberry, strawberry and pomegranate to speak forcefully.”

— Virginie Boone, December 2017

JEB DUNNUCK

91
POINTS

“A classic, well-made California Pinot Noir. Spiced cherries, raspberries, flowers, and subtle smoky, earthy notes all flow to a medium-bodied, balanced, elegant wine that’s already drinking beautifully, yet is capable of keeping for 5-7 years.”

— Jeb Dunnuck, June 5, 2018

RESTAURANT WINE

“A wonderful 2015 RRV Pinot Noir: intensely flavored yet elegant, with full body, supple texture, good balance, and a very long and persistent finish. In aroma/flavor, it tastes of cherry, raspberry, red currant, black tea, clove, spicy oak, kola nute, and cedar. Great value.”

— Ronn Weigand, Jan 2018

