

GARY FARRELL

VINEYARDS & WINERY

2015 PINOT NOIR

HALLBERG VINEYARD
RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

WINE ENTHUSIAST

95
POINTS

“This is a juicy, expansive and textured wine, incredibly delicious in ripe raspberry and strawberry flavors. It has sanguine undertones, with clove, cardamom and black tea that stand out against polished tannins.”

— Virginie Boone, July 2018

JEB DUNNUCK

93
POINTS

“Deep ruby-colored and offering a beautiful nose of mulberries, blackberries, wood smoke, spice and underbrush, it’s medium-bodied, seamless, and silky on the palate. It’s a classic, Cote de Nuits look-alike that will drink nicely for a decade.”

— Jeb Dunnuck, June 5, 2018

PINOT FILE

93
POINTS

“Brooding aromas of blackest cherry, black raspberry and blueberry-pomegranate. Bright, mid weight flavors of blueberry and boysenberry fruits resembling biting into just-picked-in-the-early-morning grapes. Polished and balanced with a juiciness propelled by vibrant acidity, finishing clean and bright.”

— Rusty Gaffney, April 2018

ROBERT PARKER'S WINE ADVOCATE

92
POINTS

“Redolent of warm red plums, chocolate-covered cherries and black raspberries with touches of dried lavender, Ceylon tea, tobacco leaf and black pepper. Medium-bodied and quite peppery in the mouth, it has a firm frame of chewy tannins and a lively lift to the long, savory finish.”

— Lisa Perrotti-Brown, April 2018

