RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

WINE REVIEW ON-LINE

95
POINTS

“This is one of Gary Farrell’s notable wines in their line-up of consistently impressive single vineyard Pinot Noir. This mid-weight wine delivers a gorgeous and seamless synthesis of fruit and savory notes. With marvelous complexity and a glossy texture, it’s a delight to drink now. It has the near magical quality of what I call “flavor without weight.” found in many red Burgundies. Acidity in the finish brightens the wine amplifies its charms, and induces you to take another sip. This wine does not tire through the meal. It gets better.”

WINE ENTHUSIAST

94
POINTS

“Light, bright and lengthy, this delicious wine offers balanced layers of dark cherry and strawberry. The ebullient fruit is complemented by notes of black tea, forest and clove, with a supple texture contributing just enough lushness.”
